An aerial photograph of a large-scale open-pit mining operation. The site features numerous concentric, stepped terraces that descend from the top of the image towards a central, flat-bottomed area. The terrain is dark and textured, with bright highlights reflecting off the metallic surfaces of the earth and the water in the bottom. A few small structures and vehicles are visible on the terraces, emphasizing the enormous scale of the excavation.

GILDED

More than 40 percent of the surface of Peru has been earmarked for mining, logging, and oil and gas drilling, yet 96 percent of this land is occupied by indigenous peoples and local communities.

Newmont is an international mining company, primarily producing gold. The company has active operations, explorations and projects in North and South America, Central Asia, Australasia, Europe, and West Africa.

Newmont's future is dependent on its ability to develop, operate and close mines consistently with [REDACTED] and to adding value to the communities in which we operate.

To realize these commitments, every Newmont operation will:

[REDACTED]

our commitment to sustainable development,
protection of human life,
health, the environment,

Consult stakeholders in matters that affect them;

Respect the social, economic and cultural rights of indigenous people.

We understand

"Creating [REDACTED]

Policy

Newmont is an international mining company, primarily producing gold. The company has active operations, explorations and projects in North and South America, Central Asia, Australasia, Europe, and West Africa.

Newmont's future is dependent on its ability to develop, operate and close mines consistent with [REDACTED]

To realize these commitments, every Newmont operation will:

- Develop and [REDACTED] systems to identify and manage risks, and [REDACTED] to support [REDACTED] decision making;
- Train our people and provide the resources to meet our [REDACTED] objectives and targets;
- [REDACTED]
- [REDACTED]
- Adopt policies and standards
- [REDACTED]
- Assess our performance
- Demand leadership
- Seek [REDACTED] our success by partnering with stakeholders in appropriate community development programs;
- [REDACTED]
- [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] the actions and conduct of every Newmont employee and contractor are the basis on which our stakeholders will evaluate our commitment to achieving [REDACTED] standards of [REDACTED]

Since environmental, health and safety issues can affect the communities where we operate, we will carry out our Social Responsibility Policy in conjunction with Newmont's Environmental and Health and Safety Policies.
